EpilIntegrity powder

Glutamine and prebiotic blend to support GI integrity and immune cell function[†]

The Clinical Evidence

Arabinogalactan: An advanced mechanism of defense

Arabinogalactan (AG) is a fiber that helps activate specific immune cells to support optimal immune system function. AG was shown to stimulate immune cells with a higher capacity than echinacea.¹ In another study, AG demonstrated the ability to potentiate the complement system, another mechanism of defense in the body.²

Arabinogalactan also helps maintain healthy microflora levels that have been shown to promote digestive health. Animal and human studies indicate that Arabinogalactan supports a healthy environment for the colon by enhancing the growth of the friendly microflora lactobacillus and bifidobacteria.^{3-4†}

BENEGUT® perilla leaf extract

In a randomized, controlled trial involving 50 subjects, 150 mg of Benegut® Perilla frutescens extract twice daily for four weeks offered statistically significant improvement in GI comfort in 80% of subjects. Supplementation improved minor GI symptoms (including gas and bloating) by an average of 40%.⁵ In vivo studies indicated that Benegut® perilla moderates TNF- α , IFN- γ , and IL-4 to support cytokine balance and GI epithelial tight junction integrity.^{6-8†}
